Catechetical Sunday, September 16th

Each year at this time, we remember and carry in prayer all students, teachers, and school administrators. May this new year be filled with wonderful discoveries ! In our parish, we also pray for all who will begin the Religious Education program this Sunday – the students, their catechists, and our Director of Faith Formation, Judy De Baggis. May joy and holiness abound !

At the middle of each of the Masses this weekend, we will invite forward all students and teachers who are present at that Mass. We'll pray for every success in their work.
