The second reading today contains the somber warning that Jesus is coming soon and will bring to each person the reward that his or her conduct deserves. Has my stewardship of the blessings entrusted to me been such that I could respond joyfully, "Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!"

Paintings of the Saints

Beginning Monday May 23rd, there will be an artistic display of the saints in our church. The artist, Nancy Cote, is local to our diocese. You can get more info about this display in the link below.

“Journeying Together in Faith and Love”

The 81st Catholic Appeal continues. Please join with your fellow parishioners in helping those in need in our communities, and show love through your generosity. The agencies and apostolates supported by the Appeal provide nourishment for body and soul, such as food pantries and food vouchers, family resources, formation of candidates for ordination to the priesthood and the diaconate, pastoral care, a Guild for the Blind, and Television Mass for the sick and homebound. Make your secure gift or pledge online today at www.GiveFRDiocese.org.

“You have never really lived until you have done something for someone who can never repay you.” (St. Teresa of Calcutta)

Please see our website stmarysnantucket.org to view this year’s Appeal video. Available in English, Spanish and Portuguese.

WORD ON FIRE

New Opportunity for Prayer

I invite you all to consider taking up the Prayer of The Church which is called The Liturgy of The Hours. There is a new publication (info below) to help facilitate this. We will begin praying Morning Prayer each day following morning Mass. There will be times throughout the church year where we will pray "Solemn Vespers" (evening prayer) as well. But you don't have to be there to do this. This prayer can be prayed in common or privately. Take a look at this link below and see if it is something you are interested in.
