The dishonest manager in today's parable knew how to manipulate money to his advantage. But the Gospel warns that no one can serve both God and money. Which do I serve? Is my stewardship such that anyone can tell?

Dear St. Mary's,
I hope all of you are doing well. I just wanted to thank you all for making the first few months of my priesthood very memorable. I am grateful to God for the time that I was able to spend with you all this summer on Nantucket. I have been doing well these past few weeks adjusting to my new assignment at St. Julie Billiart Parish in Dartmouth, MA. I am helping with ministry to high school students at Bishop Stang High School, providing hospital ministry at St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford, and I celebrate Mass at a convent for a small order of religious sisters (the Missionaries of Charity). I am very happy to be in my new assignment even though it's always a little bit of a challenge to begin something new. Please know that all of you are in my prayers and please pray for me. God Bless,

Fr. Greg Quenneville
