The sin of the rich man in today's parable was not that he was rich, but that he failed to share his wealth with the beggar at his gate. He knew Lazarus, perhaps walked by him every time he came in or out, but did nothing to relieve his suffering. Is there a Lazarus in my life? What am I doing to help?

Bishop Edgar M. da Cunha, S.D.V., has issued the following statement in response to the unexpected arrival of migrants on Martha's Vineyard on Wednesday, September 14:

"In the Gospel of St. Matthew, Jesus makes quite clear how we are to care for strangers: 'For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me' (Mt 25:35).

"This mandate was clearly evident in the inspiring response of the Martha's Vineyard community as a whole to the plight of some 50 migrants mostly from Venezuela who were literally left stranded on their island on Wednesday. Shelter, food, and basic needs assistance were quickly provided in accord with the dignity due all migrants, who are -first and foremost- our sisters and brothers in the human family regardless of birthplace or legal status.

"Here in the Diocese of Fall River, which encompasses Cape Cod and Martha's Vineyard, we must do all we can to ensure a humanitarian response to this crisis. Now that the state has relocated the migrants from the island to a military base on the Cape mainland, bilingual staff from Catholic Charities-Diocese of Fall River (Catholic Social Services) is there to welcome them in their native language and to assist officials in assessing their needs, immediate and long term. The agency has committed its resources to address these needs working alongside the state and other relief agencies. Pastoral outreach including Mass and the sacraments will be made available from our parishes in the region, and parishes may also be called upon for other support depending on needs that become evident. I know that one of our churches on the Vineyard is ready with additional shelter space should the need arise.

New Opportunity for Prayer

I invite you all to consider taking up the Prayer of The Church which is called The Liturgy of The Hours. There is a new publication (info below) to help facilitate this. We began praying Morning Prayer starting on June 6th each day following morning Mass. There will be times throughout the church year where we will pray "Solemn Vespers" (evening prayer) as well. But you don't have to be there to do this. This prayer can be prayed in common or privately. Take a look at this link below and see if it is something you are interested in. <https://www.wordonfire>
