Dear Friends,

This quote has been rolling around in my mind over the past week. "Louis, I think this is the beginning of a beautiful friendship." Of course this is the last line of the classic movie "Casablanca".

This has been on my mind because of a wonderful partnership that is forming with the Nantucket Food Pantry (which the Interfaith Council sponsors) and a new organization called "Nourish Nantucket". It's the beginning of a beautiful friendship because of the common purpose we share; To help those on Nantucket who suffer from food insecurity. People not being able to afford to put food on their tables is an unconscionable reality in any part of our world, but I feel here on Nantucket it is especially so.

For years the Interfaith Council has worked to assist in this endeavor with the Food Pantry and it's wonderful that a new partnership is forming. Working together is the only way we can assist those in need. I am grateful for those who are willing to help and step up to provide what is needed.

On this Labor Day Weekend, as we pause and reflect on the gift and responsibility of human labor, let us also reflect upon the fruits of our labor by sharing what we have earned and caring for those in need. It's as simple as that.

If you're interested in what Nourish Nantucket is all about, please take a look here:

God bless you all!

Fr. John
