July "Count"

The Office of Pastoral Planning of our diocese requests, as they have in the past, that the parishes of Cape Cod and the Islands count those attending Masses during the month of July. So, beginning next weekend our ushers begin counting.

Saints at St. Mary's

Paintings of the Saints: we again have an artistic display of the saints in our church for the summer. The artist, Nancy Merek Cote, is local to our diocese. Nancy's hope is that this exhibit will inspire women, men, and children of all ages and backgrounds to a heightened passion that led these saints on their own faith journeys. You can get more info about this display in the link below.

<https://www.mareksaints.com/>

The above painting was gifted to me by Nancy and her husband Michael on the 25th anniversary of my ordination to the priesthood.

THIS WEEK AT MASS

Monday, July 13: St. Henry (+ 1024). With his wife they assisted the poor. As emperor he respected the Church's freedom, fostering ecclesiastical and monastic reform. He founded the See of Bamberg as a center for missions to the Slavs. He is the patron of Benedictine oblates.

Tuesday, July 14: St. Kateri Tekakwitha, virgin (+ 1680 at Caughnawaga, PQ at age 24). She led a life of great austerity and love in spite of ridicule and abuse. She is called the "Lily of the Mohawks." She is the first native American to be declared "Blessed" (1980) and was canonized by Pope Benedict XVI October 21, 2012.

Wednesday, July 15: St. Bonaventure, bishop, doctor of the Church (+ 1274). A Franciscan, he was the minister general of the community for 17 years. He became the Cardinal bishop of Albano, and authored biblical commentaries and many ascetical and spiritual works.

Thursday, July 16: Our Lady of Mount Carmel. The scriptures speak of the beauty of Mount Carmel in Galilee where the prophet Elijah defended the faith of Israel in the living God. There, at the beginning of the 13th. Century, under the title of "St. Mary of Mount Carmel," the Order of Carmelites (today numbering about 1,950 religious) had its formal beginning. Other days are weekdays of Ordinary Time.

85th Annual Catholic Appeal

"Let it Begin with Me
We answered Christ's call to promote peace in our community!" Together, we made a difference! Our final total for this year's "Let it Begin with Me" Catholic Appeal stands at $93,510.00! Thank you to the one hundred and fifteen donors from St. Mary's Parish who stepped forward and made a gift to ensure the campaign was an overwhelming success. This amount is over $13,000 above our total for last year.

We are extremely grateful for our many donors. May God continue to bless our parish community, and may we continue to follow Jesus' example in countless ways, bringing peace to people across our community.

St. Mary's July Cookout ~ Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who attended, worked, donated to or participated in any way to another successful Summer Cookout for St. Mary's. And a special thank you to our Knights of Columbus for all of their hard work and their culinary skills that they so graciously share with our parish. A good time was had by all and we look forward to the next one on Stroll Weekend!!

Dear Friends,

Like many of you, I've been paying a bit more attention to soccer this summer. Even if you are not a huge soccer fan, it is hard not to notice the energy, excitement, and sense of unity that surrounds the World Cup. People from every nation, language, and background gather around the same game. There is competition. People cheer hard for their own country. But there is also something very beautiful about it. For a few weeks, the world remembers that we belong to one human family. Before there were nations, there was one human family, created in the image and likeness of God.

I was delighted to discover there is a Catholic connection to the World Cup. FIFA itself is not a Catholic organization. But the man who is mostly responsible for the creation of the World Cup was Jules Rimet, a devout French Catholic. Rimet was deeply influenced by Pope Leo XIII and his great encyclical Rerum Novarum, which defended the dignity of workers, the poor, and the human person. Rimet believed that sports could help bring people together regardless of class, nationality, or division. Under his leadership, the first World Cup was held in Uruguay in 1930.

Almost one hundred years later, another Pope Leo has spoken about the value of sports. Pope Leo XIV recently reminded us that "life is not a race to be run in solitude," but something "played as a team." He also prayed that sports may be "a space of encounter, not exclusion, a path of peace, not violence."

In a world that often seems angry, and divided, the World Cup can be a little sign of hope. Not because soccer will save the world. It won't. Only Christ saves. But events like this can remind us of something we too easily forget: we are more united in our humanity and in our common origin than we realize.

We all come from the same Creator. We all long for joy, belonging, peace, and home. We may speak different languages, wave different flags, and cheer for different teams, but beneath all of that, we are brothers and sisters.

That is why even a game can remind us that competition does not have to mean conflict. Difference does not have to mean division. Love of one's own country does not have to mean hatred for another.

Maybe that is one of the lessons of this World Cup. We can celebrate and cheer. We can express our disappointment. But in the midst of healthy competition, we can also rejoice in the beauty of the human family gathered together.

And perhaps, in that, we see a small glimpse of the Kingdom of God, where every nation, race, people, and tongue are gathered before the throne of Jesus.

God bless you all!

Fr. John
