Nantucket, Massachusetts*

The Marian Medal

Bishop Edgar M. da Cunha will present the Marian Medals at Saint Mary's Cathedral in Fall River on Sunday, November 18, 2018, at three o'clock in the afternoon. This annual award recognizes members of diocesan parishes, nominated by their pastors for years of outstanding devotion and service.

It was first presented in 1968 by the late Fall River Bishop James L. Connolly. The Marian Medal is made of sterling silver and is embossed with a Miraculous Medal on one side and the Fall River Diocesan coat-of-arms on the other.

Our recipient for 2018 is:

Erik Wendelken

Congratulations Erik. You are well deserving of this award and our parish has been truly blessed by your many years of service and devotion!
