Thank You Ocean Honda!!

Again this weekend (July 11th / 12th), we are sporting large banners in front of the church, advertising Ocean Honda of Weymouth and Ocean Honda of Brockton. The gentleman who owns these car dealerships is a seasonal parishioner here at St. Mary's. Usually he sponsors our Parish Summer Fair with an extremely GENEROUS donation.

This year, our Parish Summer Fair was canceled due to the Coronavirus. The owner of these car dealerships still offered to make a generous donation to the parish, despite the fact that our fair was canceled. He simply asked that we give him some advertising with the posters from last year's fair.

Parish collections this year, just since the start of the Coronavirus, are down nearly $70,000 compared to last year's collections during that same period of time. This gentleman's donation makes up more than TWO THIRDS of that deficit. I can't tell you how GRATEFUL I am for this exceptional generosity to St. Mary's.

So if you hear anyone making negative comments about the banners in front of the church (like we heard LAST year), maybe you can tell people what it's all about: It's about a very generous man helping his seasonal parish during difficult financial times. One thing I know, when I need a new car, I'll be going to either Ocean Honda of Weymouth or Ocean Honda of Brockton!

Live Streaming in "realtime" of our Church

Letter from Fr. John July 10, 2020

Dear Friends in Christ,

I hope this note finds you well and staying healthy as Coronavirus cases on Nantucket increase with the summer crowds. We are trying to prevent the spread of the virus here at St. Mary's Church by implementing the mandated guidelines and restrictions for public worship. If you come to Mass, please assist us by following the guidance of our volunteers at the front door of the church.

We will continue to keep St. Mary's Church locked when Mass is not scheduled. Given the fact that the Coronavirus can live on nonporous surfaces for hours, if not days, this measure is for the safety of all residents and visitors who would be stopping in for prayer during the course of each day.

Even if you are one of the many people who has a key to the Church and Parish Center, please do NOT go into either facility. As a Faith Community, we must do all we can to prohibit the spread of the Coronavirus on our beloved Nantucket Island.

Please be well and be safe, and may God bless you during this difficult time.

Peace, Fr. John Kelleher
